Summary

I'm a Client Success and CX professional with 10+ years of experience spanning fintech, SaaS, banking, and global remote environments. What sets me apart? I bring together three things most people have separately — a deep understanding of client needs, a sharp eye for process improvement, and genuine tech fluency. I pick up new tools fast, I think in systems, and I care deeply about how products and experiences feel to the people using them. I've worked across Pakistan, the US, UK, and South America — remotely and hybrid — supporting clients at the scale of Microsoft and building operations from scratch at early-stage SaaS companies. I'm at my best in environments that value ownership, innovation, and getting things done — where creativity isn't a liability but an asset. Currently open to roles in Client Success, CX Strategy, Product Operations, or UX-adjacent positions. kahmed_3085@hotmail.com | +92 302 5344435

As a passionate advocate for client success, I excel in delivering exceptional customer experiences and operational excellence. Focused on supporting Microsoft's software Acquisitions, I lead diverse initiatives to ensure seamless communication, execution, and collaboration between vendors, publishers and clients.

Key Responsibilities:

- Drive operational account health by exceeding SLA metrics and providing data-driven insights.
- Act as the primary contact for escalations, swiftly resolving concerns while cultivating lasting relationships.
- Analyze workflows to identify inefficiencies and implement innovative solutions that enhance client satisfaction.
- Present comprehensive operational reviews to ensure alignment with customer goals.
- Collaborate with internal teams for efficient deployments, inventory management, and delivery standards.
- Provide quotes for new and renewal licensing, ensuring accurate, timely responses to client needs.
- Mitigate risks by addressing client concerns and coordinating actionable resolutions.

Core Competencies:

- Proficient in license management, including quoting for new purchases and renewals.
- Strong communication and problem-solving skills, adept at resolving complex challenges.
- Skilled in presenting to top-tier clients and leading strategic discussions.
- Demonstrated ability to work independently in fast-paced, dynamic environments.

Achievements & Values:

I thrive on building meaningful relationships, leveraging data-driven insights, and delivering tailored solutions to meet unique client needs. By aligning my customer-first mindset with strategic oversight, I consistently achieve impactful results that support Microsoft's software acquisitions.
